Lusmanns presented with a Green Apple Award at the House of Commons

GREEN APPLE AWARDS

On Monday 14 November, Andrei Lusmann, Managing Director of Lusmanns Fish & Grill Restaurants in St Albans and Hertford was presented with a prestigious Green Apple Award for Environmental Best Practice at a House of Commons Reception hosted by the Rt. Hon Liz Kendall, MP.

Launched in 1994 by The Green Organisation, The Green Apple Environment Awards have become well established as one of the most popular international environmental recognition schemes. Now in their eighteenth year, they recognise, reward and promote environmental best practice around the world.

The award comes towards the end of another fantastic year for the independent Hertfordshire-based restaurant group which has also won the RSPCA Independent Restaurant Good Business Award and the St Albans Chamber of Commerce Green Award, been finalists for the Hertfordshire Green Awards and received a sustainability score of 8/10 in a recent review by The Times critic Giles Coren.

Andrei Lusmann said: “Running restaurants with an environmental bias is a modern day discipline, we ignore it at our peril.”

NOTES

About the Green Apple Awards

- The Green Apple Awards started in 1994 and have become established as the country's major recognition for environmental endeavour among companies, councils, communities and countries.
- The awards are organised by The Green Organisation, an independent, non-political, non-activist, non-profit environment group dedicated to recognising and promoting environmental best practice.
- Judges for the Green Apple Awards are drawn from the Environment Agency, the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health, the Chartered Institution for Wastes Management and other independent bodies.
