Lussmanns Hertford celebrates 10th anniversary with full refurbishment and classic dishes at retro prices

This month, Lussmanns Fish & Grill celebrates 10 years as one of Hertford's busiest and most popular local independent restaurants.

Located in the historic Grade II Listed 'Egyptian House' on Fore Street, which dates from the 19th Century, the interior of this bijou brasserie has been completely refurbished to give it a more contemporary feel. Multi-coloured lighting pendants from local glassblowers Rothschild & Bickers, a series of photos conveying the history of the restaurant and a new colour palette have transformed the dining space.

During August, diners will receive a 10 year birthday present to thank them for a decade of loyal support. The usual monthly seasonal specials menu will be replaced in Hertford by a selection of classic dishes from the original 2004 menu at retro prices. Guests can enjoy an orange and beetroot salad starter, free-range Label Anglais chicken alfredo or yellowfin tuna with a garden salad for their main course and finish with a seasonal fruit panna cotta. As with the current house and set menus, there are plenty of vegetarian and gluten-free options to suit different dietary requirements and the full menu is available online at www.lussmanns.com.

Reflecting on the past decade, owner Andrei Lussmann said: "Lussmanns was developed as a restaurant I wanted to eat in and what we do is very much what I like. Although we are fortunate to have enjoyed terrific support in Hertford, I know that, like all restaurants, you're only as good as your last meal. People don't notice when you get better – they just keep coming – but they do notice when things get worse so to avoid complacency, we constantly seek feedback from diners on how we can improve."

"I am very grateful to all our diners who appreciate what we offer and proud of what we've achieved in Hertford as a team, but I still review the business every day and think about where we will be tomorrow"
